March 2020 HPHC CE program – Real consumerism

27 Credit Package
Combined Lecture and 3 Self Study Exam

Friday, March 20 at Harvard Pilgrim, 93 Worcester Street, Wellesley
Room 1038, 1st floor
Doors open at 9:00, lecture starts at 9:30 AM

45 minute lecture
Real Healthcare Consumerism
What does a well informed healthcare consumer know about care quality? Gary Fradin will give a fast based lecture that explains medical quality basics – essential information for anyone considering having a medical intervention.

After the lecture, take the 2 Self Study exams below.
You must read the texts in advance. You will not be permitted to take the exams otherwise.
Available from www.HealthInsuranceCE.com after you register.

Transparency Metrics by Gary Fradin, Mass course #C11293, 16 credits introduces some key care quality metrics.

Fundamental Health Ins Problems by Gary Fradin, Course #C20195, 8 credits. Just because a medical intervention is covered by insurance, does it work well enough to have?

Beyond Deductibles Mass course #C92891, 3 credits introduces 4 the key questions a wise patient should ask before deciding which care to obtain.

Exams take about 20 minutes each after the lecture. Proctors provided. Graded immediately. You should be finished by 11:30

$359 for the entire package
Register and pay at www.HealthInsuranceCE.com under Live Classes

Ethics self study exam on Health Insurance Broker Disclosure Ethics I (3 credits) available at every 2019 live CE program for $39.95.
Text available on www.HealthInsuranceCE.com under Gary's Texts after you login.

Questions? gfradin@HealthInsuranceCE.com or call Gary at 508-878-3785