

Building Healthy Communities

Eastern Massachusetts

Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation provides the tools, training and leadership to build healthy communities. In 2014, the Foundation awarded nearly $2.9 million in grants to 710 nonprofit organizations in Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire.

Harvard Pilgrim employees join with the Celtics to tend the garden at the Hennigan School.

Investments in Massachusetts Communities:

Harvard Pilgrim Community Spirit 9/11 Mini-Grants Program: A total of $489,500 was distributed through 979 mini-grants to hundreds of employee-chosen nonprofit organizations in communities throughout the state.

Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston: Close to 6,500 youth are learning to stay active and make healthy food choices thanks to the creation of the youth-led Health Advisory Committees at the Clubs.

Healthy Cooking Classes with ChopChop Magazine: More than 40 youth at Boys & Girls Clubs in Worcester, Boston, Waltham and New Bedford learned how to cook, with 4 more classes, and 40 more students, planned for 2015.

The Hennigan School (Boston): More than 150 volunteers from Harvard Pilgrim and the Boston Celtics improved the Hennigan School with landscaping, bright murals, and enhancing its gardens and orchard.

Culture InSight: Through its consultation services, Culture InSight helped a mental health provider collaborative improve the quality of services provided to communities in the MetroWest area of Boston.

Cradles to Crayons Backpack to School Campaign: A total of 1,500 Boston and Quincy elementary students were better prepared for school with backpacks and new school supplies donated and sorted by Harvard Pilgrim employees.

Our Regional Impact in 2014

3,200

Harvard Pilgrim employee service hours helping the local community

$2,133,950

Value of the Foundation's charitable giving and service

Harvard Pilgrim provided a grant to ChopChop Magazine to teach healthy cooking classes to kids.

97%

Harvard Pilgrim employees who participated in at least one service or giving activity