

Maine Behavioral Health Crisis Services Programs

Sweetser Crisis Services www.sweetser.org operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and provides behavioral health assessment and mobile crisis intervention services for children, adolescents, adults and families. Mobile crisis intervention specialists respond to client calls for assistance in their homes, at schools, or in other community settings. The Sweetser mobile crisis intervention specialists respond to crisis calls from parents, teachers, police officers, other guardians, and youths asking for immediate help with a child or family in crisis. Sweetser responds to crisis calls 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To access Mobile Crisis Intervention services, you may call 1-888-568-1112 (also designated as the Maine Crisis Hotline) for rapid response to crisis situations.

Sweetser Community Mental Health Center also offers a range of Outpatient Services including counseling and medication management at various community locations.
